TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

New York, 9th—The city is still in a state of consternation at the horrible catastrophe in the Royal Hotel. The Fire Brigade are still at work, searching for the corpses Four more charred bodies have been found to-day, two men and two women. Fifty-five persons are still missing, but it is believed only 25 are in the ruins.

Bilbao, 9th — The working of the mines has been resumed to-day by the owners, except in the Arboleda district, where the miners are still on strike.

Paris, 9th—In the action at law brought by the widow of the famous painter Meissonier, to be allowed to sell the pictures of her deceased husband, and to take the eighth part of the proceeds, the Civil Court has decided against her, and given judgment in favour of the children of Meissonier's first wife, who had asked for the division of the collection to open an Exhibition of the pictures.

St. Petersburg, 9th—The Government is occupied daily in devising means to help the famine-stricken districts. The Imperial Council has resolved to declare inalienable the land held by the peasantry, and has also created a Help and Pension Fund for them. It is also announced that the Czar will re-establish the old law in reference to Serfdom, assigning a vast tract of land to be cultivated, the third part of the harvest to be deposited in the Communal stores, in payment of the local taxes due to the Government. The system will be first applied in Samara and Saratoff, and, if the result is good, will be extended to the whole empire.

New York 9th—The Supreme Court has declared Constitutional the law that prohibits the publication of Lottery advertizements in the newspapers.

Paris, 9th — The new tariffs have caused a general rise in the price of all French articles.

CUR EXPORT TRADE.

In Sunday's issue we gave a retrospect of imports (and here it is necessary to observe that "olive oil. gallons" was altered by the compositor into "olive oil, tons"), and to-day we sum up the principal exports thus :—

Wool and sheepskins :—

	Wool, tons.	Sheepskins, tons.
1886	132,100	35,300
1887	109,200	30,400
1888	131,700	28,100
1889	141,800	33,400
1890	118,400	27,100
1891	138,600	24,200

The above figures show that in the midst of the fictitious prosperity that dazzled the people of Buenos Ayres the sheep-farming business made no progress, our exports of wool and sheepskins summing up last year only 163,000 tons against 175,000 tons in 1886. As sheep-farming is still the principal business of the Republic this decline is very significant.

Hides and tallow shewed as follows :—

	Hides, No.	Tallow, tons.
1886..	2,820,000	12,700
1887..	3,530,000	7,200
1888..	3,670,000	14,800
1889..	3,590,000	18,300
1890..	4,560,000	17,400
1891..	4,290,000	20,700

Under these items we find an increase of 50 per cent since 1886, which indicates that cattle-farming is superseding in some manner the once favorite industry of sheep-farming

Mutton and jerked beef were as follows :—

	Mutton, tons.	Beef, tons.
1886...	7,400	37,400
1887...	12,100	23,900
1888...	18,200	26,600
1889 ..	16,500	41,800
1890....	20,400	43,500
1891...	23,300	39,300

The exportation of frozen mutton has doubled in four years, but it is surprising that this industry has not reached greater dimensions. The province of Buenos Ayres is supposed to have 60,000,000 sheep, yet the number annually frozen for exportation to Europe falls short of 2,000,000 head. If sheep-farming were on a better footing we could easily export 10,000,000 frozen sheep yearly.

Wheat and maize are the chief exports of grain, viz :—

	Wheat, tons.	Maize, tons.
1886	44,500	231,700
1887	244,400	361,800
1888	186,900	162,300
1889	27,100	432,600
1890	342,800	707,300
1891	317,700	583,200

It appears that we export now about one million tons of grain yearly, or four times as much as in 1886; in other words the surplus production of grain is more than a quarter of a ton per inhabitant.

Hay and linseed showed as follows:—

	Hay, tons	Linseed, tons
1886.....	12,400	37,700
1887.....	12,400	81,200
1888.....	9,300	40,200
1889.....	20,400	28,200
1890.....	19,100	30,700
1891.....	30,100	6,500

Hay is evidently a prosperous industry, while linseed appears to be rapidly declining to zero. Most of the hay, we believe, goes to Rio Janeyro.

Copper and lead are the most important mining products, which showed as follows:—

	Copper tons	Lead tons
1886.....	196	303
1887.....	143	157
1888.....	116	125
1889.....	56	110
1890.....	102	93
1891.....	91	990

There was apparently an increased activity in mining last year, the total value of minerals experted being 1,290,000$, against 670,000$ in the preciding year.

The total values of exports in the last 4 years were :—

	1888	1889
Pastoral..	78,500,000	100,600,000
Tillage....	16,900,000	17,400,000
Sundries..	4,700,000	4,800,000
Total...	100,100,000	122,800,000
	1890	1891
Pastoral..	69,500,000	67,200,000
Tillage....	25,600,000	21,900,000
Sundries..	5,700,000	7,600,000
Total..	100,800,000	96,700,000

The value of pastoral exports has declined 33 per cent since 1889, while that of agricultural has risen 25 per cent. This indicates more or less the transformation that is taking place in our rural industries: the safe business of sheep-farming is going back, while the very uncertain and perilous one of tillage is everyday growing in importance. Time will tell whether the best interests of the country are advanced by the change, to which the Government, Congress, newspaper editors and other persons are devoting every energy. We do not hesitate to say that it is a very unwise policy, and may lead to deplorable consequences.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

London, 16th Jan.

The official announcement of the death of the Duke of Clarence was made in a Supplement to the Gazette issued last night. The death of his Royal Highness is referred to as "a lamentable loss to Her Majesty and to his illustrious parents and relatives." Orders have been issued for the Court to go into mourning until the 26th of February, until which date the Army and Navy are to wear crape. The Earl Marshal, by her Majesty's commands, notifies that it is expected that all persons shall put themselves into mourning for three weeks. The Bishop of London has issued forms of prayer to be read in his diocese tomorrow. No definite arrangements have yet been made for the funeral, but it is believed that the remains of the late Duke will be removed from Sandringham and placed in a vault at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, on Wednesday next.

It was rumoured in London yesterday that both the Princess of Wales and Princess Victoria of Teck were indisposed. Their Royal Highnesses are undoubtedly suffering from great prostration caused by the shock and grief arising from the Duke's illness and death; but there is no reason to believe that in either case this has assumed a serious form. Dr. Laking, however, remained at Sandringham last night. The Prince of Wales is stated to be bearing his affliction as well as could be expected.

The Queen has telegraphied to President Carnot her appreciation of the sympathy shown to her family in their calamity. From all the principal cities abroad telegrams describe the feeling of sorrow excited by the death of the Duke. The English residents in Paris yesterday met and agreed to an address of condolence. The King of the Belgians has decided not to come to the funeral. In the Viceroy's Council at Calcutta expressions of deep sympathy were uttered by Lord Lansdowne and by speakers representing the native subjects of her Majesty. From Canada and all the Australasian Colonies we hear of similar public manifestations of regret. At Melbourne a proposal has been made for a general day of mourning.

The ship conveying the new Khedive had not been sighted at Alexandria up to nine o'clock last evening. The city was "en fete" and crowds of Europeans and natives had flocked to it to await the arrival of his Highness.

The British Channel Squadron arrived yesterday afternoon at Tetuan, on the Moorish coast, where it will remain for about ten days. The vessels will then proceed on a cruise, returning to Gibraltar.

The Lemberg newspapers state that in Russian Poland manifestoes are being distributed amongst the people by Russian agents, stirring them up against the Polish landed proprietors. The latter are accused in these pamphlets of having brought about the existing distress by sending their corn out of the country, while the Czar is praised for having done what he could to alleviate the famine by issuing the Ukase prohibiting the export of bread-stuffs.

Anarchist disturbances are reported from Xeres. The rioters attacked the village with stones, and a detachment of cavalry had to be summoned to restore order. Several arrests were made.

Intelligence received at Auckland from Samoa states that the Government party has disarmed the leading rebel chiefs at Sinmu. Mataafa is encamped near Aara, and it is believed that he will offer resistance if attacked, but will submit if the edict announcing him to be a rebel is withdrawn.

A telegram from Buenos Ayres states that the Minister of the Interior has decided to call upon the Guaranteed Railway Companies to refund to the Government in Morgan Bonds the excess of the gross receipts over the recognized working expenses as required by the law of October 6th, 1891.

A serious accident happened yesterday to a train on the Northern Pacific Railway. A sleeping-car toppled over an embankment, and immediately became on fire. Two ladies, who were passengers, were burned to death.

Both Parties were actively at work in Rossendale yesterday. Mr Maden, though better, was unable to appear at his meetings, but Sir W. Lawson addressed his supporters. Sir T. Brooks spoke at a general meeting at Bacup last night, and was supported by Mr. Austen Chamberlain.

The six men who are in custody at Walsall charged with being in the unlawful possession of explosive material, were taken before the Magistrates yesterday, and remanded. The only evidence was that of the Chief Constable as to the arrests, and as to the documents and articles which he found in the possession of the Prisoners. One of the papers was a proclamation bearing the name of the Prisoner Cailes, calling upon Socialists to "destroy entirely all that have lived till now by human work without contributing to it."

THE LATE CARDINAL MANNING.

The wide-spread interest excited by the demise of Cardinal Manning found expression, in the course of Tuesday and yesterday, by the receipt of letters and telegrams from all parts of the world. The public will be admitted by the principal entrance of the Archbishop's House, Westminster, between eleven o'clock in the morning and six in the evening, to-day, to-morrow, and Monday. Two large rooms are devoted to the purposes of the lying in state. The outer room, which fronts the staircase, has been converted into a mortuary chapel. The walls are draped with black hangings studded with silver stars. Facing the entrance stands a temporary altar, at which the resident clergy will, while the body remains in the Palace, say the customary Masses for the dead. The catafalque on which the body lies is placed opposite the door leading from the mortuary chapel. The bier is of red, and the hangings of the room are red, which is the colour associated with the dignity of the Cardinalate. The remains lie on purple cushions, fringed with gold, the feet towards the door, and the head slightly raised. The body is not clothed in the rich and distinctive garb of his rank; but is habited in a purple cassock, an alb terminating in rich lace, a dark purple chasuble, and the white stole which is presented to every Cardinal on his accession to the dignity, and is marked with his name. The gloved hands are joined on the breast. The thin ascetic face wears a look of profound peace and repose. But for the extreme pallor, one could hardly distinguish the expression of the face from that of deep sleep. The head is surmounted by a white mitre, beneath which the worn features look very small. The official ring is on the third finger of the right hand outside the purple glove. Behind the bier a large silver cross has been raised, upon a background of black. The Cardinal's remains will be removed on Tuesday or Wednesday to the Brompton Oratory, where they will lie for another day. No decision has yet been come to with respect to the day of funeral; but the place of interment will be Kensal-green Cemetery.

At the various Roman Catholic churches Masses were said for the repose of the soul of the deceased Prelate. In the Pro-Cathedral, Kensington, the Oratory, Brompton, and in all the West-end churches the parochial Mass at eight o'clock was well attended by mourning congregations. The altar was draped in black, and the officiating priests were vested in canonicals of black and silver. In the Cardinal's old church, St. Mary of the Angels, Bayswater, where he officiated for years before his elevation to the Archbishopric, there was a crowded body of worshippers. In the poorer districts, especially in the Italian Church, Hattongarden, St. Patrick, Soho, and the East-end the manifestations of grief were most touching. As the priest, at the close of each service, requested the prayers of the congregation for the deceased Prelate, the intoning of the "De Profundis" was emphasised by the tears and sobs of those present.

Last evening meetings of the League of the Cross, of which the Cardinal was President, were held all over the Metropolis. Telegrams were received from Liverpool, Manchester, Birmingham, Newcastle, Dublin, and Glasgow.

Among the telegrams received by Canon Johnson, the late Cardinal's Secretary, are four from the Archbishops of the several Provinces of Ireland. From the Catholic Primate of all Ireland came the following message: "Heartily sympathise with you and the clergy of Westminster in your great loss. We all keenly feel the loss of a great Churchman."

Another telegram of interest was as follows:—"The delegates assembled at the meeting of the London United District of Foresters, representing 93,400 members, deplore the death of Cardinal Archbishop Manning, and recognise his labours in connection with the working classes, and offer a vote of condolence."

The Mayor of Cork telegraphed as follows:—"Have heard with profound regret of the death of the great Prince of the Church and distinguished philanthropist, the Cardinal Archbishop of Westminster."

Rome, Friday night.

England had, until lately, four Cardinals in the Sacred College; now, by the deaths of Cardinals MacCabe, Newman, and Manning, there remains only one, Cardinal Howard, who is insane. The Vatican intends immediately to take measures to come to an agreement with the English Government, in order to fill these vacancies, and at least two English Cardinals will be nominated at the Consistory at Easter. The friends of Monsignor Stonor are making great efforts to obtain for him the succession to Cardinal Manning at Westminster. But the Vatican has resolved to be certain that the appointment it will make is pleasing to the English Government before making it.

The Journal Officiel of the French Government announces the promotion of M. Rouvier, its Minister in this republic, to first class diplomatic rank.

Minister Zapata leaves to-day on a trip to Mendoza, where he will remain a fortnight.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Paris, Jan. 2nd.

Everything considered, the expired year has not been bad for France. She has peace within her borders: no country shows any desire to thwart her, and if she returns that attention the reign of tranquillity may be indefinite. Her material situation is less satisfactory, and the prospects of its improvement are anything but bright—because full of uncertainty.

The germs of conflict between the advanced guard of republicanism and Catholicism have taken greater root than the friends of public peace would desire. However, as it is not the interest of any party or sect to live in a chronic state of hostility or irritation, the reflective opinion, and above all, the example of moderate men will stem dangerous tendencies.

The Comte de Paris appears to be the only prominent personage still desirous to fish in troubled waters. He has issued a circular letter to his "fideles," which is a compound of political blindness and diplomatic miscalculation. Perhaps there are not a dozen men in France who believe in the possibility of a monarchical restoration in any form. The cue of the Comte was, to lie low and keep quiet. His fortunes cannot be bettered by trying to make capital out of the religious dissensions of France, because the clergy appear resolved to keep themselves clear of political factions, and the nation has a repugnance against all that stirs up religious strife.

The customary official receptions were as dull as ditch water—proof of undisturbed rest. M. Carnot in his allocution attested this calm condition of the home situation and of foreign relations. The social side of the season's proceedings was neither dull nor especially sprightly. There was no falling-off in the attendance of worshippers at the several churches; a good deal of red-berry holly was sold, and as much mistletoe as would enable all the kissable ladies of the capital to be embraced. All the shops did a fair amount of business, but I think the days of the Boulevard Fair are counted; the legend of its being a Nogorod for the humble producers of knick-knacks, to fill the rôle of wholesale dealers with the general purchaser, has lived. The ordinary shops, but more especially the Monster houses, not only offer such catching nothings and multum in parvos at "lower quotations," but present also a larger variety of nursery attractions. They have stocks laid in from all nations—France included, so to convert these mammoth stores into halls of daggling light, furnished with Arabian night wonders, during some three weeks must eclipse the wooden hovels and reeking indigency that find a tolerated refuge on the leading Boulevards. Besides, many shops invest in these shanties and sell off old remainder stocks finished attractively with a few novelties.

The institution of exchanging visiting cards has dropped to a low ebb this year. The postal authorities are jubilant, and the post men are saved from one temptation, that of emptying the contents of their delivery box into the Seine, and to give the cards the widest circulation in the world. It was intended to knock the custom on the head, and send the amount to be expended on printing and posting the card-board to the local mayors for the relief of the poor. Only the former part of the reform has been acted upon. The custom of supping, on the eves of Christmas and New Year's day, has on the other hand largely progressed; here the benefit is individual, immediate and tangible. Instead, however, of holding the Pantagruelian spreads in a restaurant, or a "gargotte," a number of friends agree to hold merry at the residence of one of themselves, the invites, as is usual, paying their quota of the gastronomic bill.

Diplomatists, in order to keep their hands in, dabble in the Bulgarian bubble and the Egyptian evacuation. Neither subject is marked dangerous; no power has the slightest intention of striking the match to set fire to the European powder magazine.

The Senate has acted perfectly right in declining to vote the budget like a letter thrown into the post, as sent up to it from the Chamber. The latter took six months to heckle the budget, and expected the "Fathers" to get through the same work in six days. Point blank refusal on the part of the "Patricians," and hence, why an instalment to meet the public expenses for the current month had to be voted. The event is not like what bigamy was at one time, a hanging matter; it only shows an absence of business habits on the part of the deputies; the action of the Senate will be a merited lesson to the Lower House; it will add a little to the prestige of the Senators, who having saved the Republic from Boulangism now are resolved to rescue the budget from indecent hurry. Respecting the Tariff Bill, it has been undergoing battledore and shuttle-cock experiences between the two Houses, of late; the players being apparently played out, have allowed the measure to become law. It is now for Ministers to show their ability by executing commercial treaties within the lines of the new Customs dues; the protectionists swear by all the big and little gods of Olympus that if the Cabinet deviates one hair-breadth from the minimum syllabus they will be hurled from power as rapidly as was Satan from his original home. Till then the politico-commercial curtain has been rung down.

There is a row, it comes on periodically like influenza and rheumatism, between the directors of theatres and the dramatic critics. The former, in exchange for the free admission of the Rhadamanthuses, expect their judgments to be uniformly favorable; but they forget that their scraps of news and fragment-puffs are published by the same journals gratuitously, equal to a bundle of free admissions during the dog-days. The simple solution would be for each side to pay for what it wants.

The Pawn Offices have commenced to loan cash on public stocks and orthodox shares; the amount varies from four-fifths to three-fifths of the value of the scrip; no one loan can exceed 500 fr.; but as my uncle has over 100 receiving houses in the city the needy, by visiting them all could raise 50,000 francs if hard pressed, and recommence on the following day. In the course of a twelve month he could thus have invested a sum equal to a Portuguese loan or the equivalent to make several versts of the Paris Validostock Grand Trunk Railway or the section of the line between Timbuctoo and the Eastern hinterland of Lake Schad.

"Ma tante," no relation to the old Lady of Threadneedle-street, charges nothing in the way of fees; this cuts out banks and is a temptation less and so a moral gain to money-changers who may be inclined to try change of air at Brussels with your "valeurs" for sole impedimenta. We are returning to the days when pawn offices were first established in France for the convenience of the rich, a privilege against which the poor protested. However, the well-to-do are still likely to make "my uncle" the custodian of much of their paper wealth, just as they already ask him to do that duty in the way of plate and jewellery. If lost the State will recoup the value, and in the panopticon store-rooms thieves neither break through nor steal. Besides, what Michat undertaker or Anastay ex-lieutenant, would think of marking for removal and flat burglary, an old lady or a dyspeptic gentleman vanishing into a pawn office.

The Duchesse de Campofelice has been married to her third husband, M. Sobége. Who is the Duchess? Originally she was a pretty "portense de pain," who won the heart of her first husband, Mr. Singer, the sewing machine man, and by whom she has had about a score of children; one daughter has become the Duchesse Décalzes, whose ancestor was the favorite "dook" of Louis XVIII and who could crack Latin jokes to ease his Majesty's gout. The bridegroom is relatively young as compared with the bride. If so, he will be the better cared

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Feb. 9.

Telegrams from Corumbá state that a revolution has broken out in Matto-Grosso to depose Governor Martinho. The movement was headed by the fleet and garrison. The revolutionists declared Corumbá capital of the State and appointed Mr. Antonio Joaquin Rocha as Governor. According to latest advices, the revolutionists are preparing to march on Cuyaba, 250 leagues from Corumbá.

Colonel Abelli has been appointed Chief of Police of Montevideo. This appointment has caused general surprise and in some quarters considerable dissatisfaction.

There is a rumor flying about that the 4th Cazadores have rebelled and that a revolution may at any moment break out. Great excitement has been caused by this news, which has not been confirmed.

Gomensoro has been elected President of the Senate. All parties are satisfied with this appointment.

The heat continues, and the drought is causing serious losses in the country districts.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Now that the elections are over, a word about Mendoza. The political horizon there is clearing. Mr. Chavarria, one of the four candidates for the Governorship, has erased his name from the ticket. So now they are three. In the meantime the local Rads have made it up with the Liberals. Both parties are openly in favor of Mr. Diocletian Garcia, who stands a good chance. This candidate, however, has to meet with the opposition of the Acuerdistas, who are very strong. The question looks complicated enough, but compared with the muddle of a few weeks ago, the situation shews symptoms of a speedy solution. There is a "rumbo," and that is the principal thing, for in provincial politics, as a rule, no one knows what principles are being upheld or what end there is in view. In the midst of all this political effervescence the vineyards of Mendoza—this backbone of the province's resources—are being laid waste by the locusts. The losses of the growers are enormous. The locusts unfortunately are "acuerdistas." They don't quarrel about their work. They seem quite agreed. If there were only Radical and Liberal locusts, these voracious insects would leave nothing but their tails on the field of strife, and the locust committees would have little to do to destroy them. We stated the other day that the losses caused by the locusts were estimated at five million dollars. Since then the figure has considerably increased, and the latest accounts state that the grape-crop this year is nil. This may be an exaggeration. We ardently hope so, for without its grapes Mendoza would be poor indeed.

Our exchanges from Corrientes contain particulars of the barbarous murder of Mr. Nievas or rather Nieva. This gentleman, who was well-known and esteemed, was murdered on Sunday. At about 11 a.m. on that day the servant, seeing that Mr. Nieva had not left his room, suspected something had gone wrong and immediately summoned the police. The door of the room was burst open and Mr. Nieva's body was found in a pool of blood on the floor, near the bed. The head was concealed by a blood-stained handkerchief. The body was dressed, a circumstance that gave rise to the supposition that the unfortunate man was murdered just before going to bed. The police examined the body and found 34 stabs. The head had been battered in, and presented more-over 14 cuts, inflicted with a knife. The hands clutched locks of red and black hair, a circumstance that may afford a valuable clue to the police. It is supposed that the murderers were two. The furniture in the room was untouched. It was quite evident that robbery was not the motive of the crime. Mr. Nieva was a man of fifty-five. He was of high social standing and possessed a large fortune. He lent out money, some say at usurious rates. But this will only be known on the examination of his account-books. The motive of the crime is supposed to be revenge, although it is urged that he had no enemies. As he did not figure politically, it is argued that political animosity had nothing to do with the crime. The greatest indignation, in the meantime, prevails in Corrientes, and if the assassins are caught, they run a good chance of being lynched by the towns people Of late, crimes of this sort have become unpleasantly frequent in Corrientes. We presume the police are not up to the mark.

Advices from Rosario shew that the row on Sunday in a café there was much more serious affair than was at first thought. A young man, named Benites, was mortally wounded. Several others were wounded. All this comes from people being allowed to carry firearms.

SUNDAY'S ELECTIONS.

The Creamery,
521 Cangallo,
Feb. 9th, 1892

Mr. Editor,

Will you allow me to make some corrections to your report of the disturbances at the Union Civica Club in front of this house on Sunday night.

There was no procession of Civicos headed by Dr. Alem to the Club. Dr. Alem was there from an early hour, and the other members dropped in at intervals and never numbered more than 400 at the utmost. Until eleven o'clock the members indulged in the cries usual on such occasions, at which hour the police, about 12 strong, appeared, and, in a very moderate manner, tried to persuade them to disperse. Instead of complying, however, they opened a most cowardly fire upon the police from the balcony and door of the Club, which the police very naturally returned. Some 70 or 80 men must have been firing at once, and, not content with firing upon the police, the Civicos fired also upon Mr. Melton Prior and some friends who had gone on to the roof of our house to see what was going on, using their revolvers and two or three remingtons. It is not a fact that any Acuerdistas were on the neighbouring roofs. There were not six people to be seen on all the remaining houses in the street; the disturbance was entirely due to the excitement of the Civicos. The police behaved well throughout; they made no arrests in the surrounding restaurants—on the contrary, two 'oficiales' called upon me at about midnight and suggested that if there were any customers in the house they should go home at once, so as not to be mistaken for Civicos later on. It is to be regretted also that the list of killed and wounded is much larger than you say; the 'oficiales' informed me that one 'vigilante' was then dead, one 'bombero' mortally wounded, and three 'vigilantes' seriously wounded. I saw two Civicos taken away in ambulances, very badly wounded in the chest and stomach, and I know there were minor casualties.

The dispersal of the Civicos was very well managed; the Club was entirely vacated by 1.30 p.m., Dr. Alem being amongst the last to leave the building.

You may rely on this being quite correct, as the whole scene was watched from this house, exactly opposite the U.C. Club.

Yours truly,
E. Cobham,
Manager "The Creamery."

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The Manager of the Central Cordoba Railway has laid before Government the guarantee bill which falls due on the 30th prox. The amount is £12,400, and this is due on the capital sunk in repairs, so that, as the manager points out, there can be no question about reimbursing a percentage of the returns to the State. In regard to the guarantee on the working capital of the line, some question has arisen in consequence of an unfavourable report by the N.R. Board, a report we alluded to some days ago The Company consider themselves entitled to $400,000 gold, and the N.R. Board urge the Government not to pay this amount, because the conditions of the contract have not been fulfilled. The representative of the Company has filed a note to Government stating that the guarantee account has been presented in the same form as in previous years, the company being unaware of the conditions to which the N.R. Board allude. The representative goes on to state that, in regard to the National interventor, no such personage has presented himself to the management.

The returns of the Anglo-Argentine Tramway for the week ending Dec. 1 were £8,369 against £7,973, which shows that the difference is now on the right side.

A decree will be issued to-day or to-morrow appointing a new National Railway Board, under the presidency of the present active and energetic chairman, Dr. Araoz. The new Board will comprise the following gentlemen:—Chairman Dr L. F. Araoz, Dr. Miguel M. Nonguez, Engineer Stegman, Dr. Jose A Terry, Ernesto Villanueva, Engineer Arturo Castano, Santiago Alcorta.

We received the following letter yesterday, from Dr. Araoz, Chairman of the N. R. Board:—

B. Ayres, Feb. 9.

Mr. Editor,

There is no truth in the notice transcribed by you from the S. A. Journal of London, to the effect that the Manager of the Argentine Great Western, Mr. W. Roberts, had told the correspondent of that paper that, in the course of a conversation, I informed him that the National Government was desirous of seeing the guaranteed railways bankrupt etc etc.

I never said any such absurdity to Mr. Roberts, nor have I ever thought of such a thing.

Trusting you will find room for these few lines,

Believe me,
Yours truly,
Luis F. Araoz.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The sun rose before breakfast hour yesterday and the gold premium did ditto after it: not to be out of the fashion, the thermometer headed in the same upward direction, and the price of beefsteaks and mutton chops followed suit. The odds on one of the candidates for the Presidency also rose; and this was the only exception to the fact that everything else that rose would have done better by remaining where it was. Politicians recovered yesterday a good deal of the bland equanimity they lost on Sunday.

The citizens of all nationalities will learn with satisfaction that the widows and families of the poor policemen killed on Sunday will continue to receive the full pay of the unfortunate men.

It's uproariously laughable. Another bloodless revolution in Brazil, this time in Matto Grosso. For goodness sake, good Brazilians, smash a few heads, or even hats, in your next, just for variety.

The U. S. S. Philadelphia with Rear-Admiral Gherardi has arrived in Montevideo. There are now seven U. S. vessels in that port, viz: Chicago, Atlanta, Bennington, Philadelphia, Newark, Concord and Essex. It is probable that Admiral Gherardi will visit Buenos Ayres before returning to the North Atlantic Station.

Telegrams from Mendoza were received yesterday announcing that part of the Cleary opera troupe had crossed the Andes. They are expected here to-day by train from the grapy West. The rest of the company come by sea.

Some of the brand new notes of the Bank of the Nation are already in circulation. They are so beautifully engraved and got up that the happy holder of enough of them will become almost reconciled to shinplasterism.

Should any of our Lomas friends happen to be hunting for tip-top builders to erect for them a family house, we recommend them to read the advertizement from Messrs. Hunt and Carey in another column, and not be harried any longer in looking for the right men to do the job.

An evening colleague asserts that the "abastecedores" or meat-market middlemen, are about to form a Trust or Ring to raise the price of meat. If this dodge were attempted in our model for everything, the United States, in a season of such abundance of flocks and herds, the outraged public would speedily form a Ring to raise the m-m. m's on the nearest trees.

We are truly sorry to see the Lord Mayor off on the wrong track again. Because the Municipal Loan has been put through the screaming farce of Conversion (on paper) his lordship is absolutely thinking of finishing the wretched Alvear Legacy, known as the Boulevard Mayo, which is in a great part responsible for the bankruptcy of the City Treasury.

The best-looking auctioneer in the country, Mr. Miñano, of Salta, sent us a telegram yesterday from that nursery of prominent Argentines announcing that Dr. Indalecio Gomez was elected on Sunday as Deputy to Congress, and congratulating the country and the province of Salta on the result. We thank Mr. M. for his kind courtesy.

A prominent Irish estanciero at Salto requests us to ask the Postmaster-General if it is not possible to remedy the abuse of detaining insufficiently stamped letters in the P. O. until the writers call and pay up the difference. Our correspondent received on the 2nd inst. a letter dated December 1st, having been notified a week before to send the money to release it. The best way would be to send on the letter at once and claim the extra postage from the receiver. No one would refuse to pay, unless he had a suspicion that a tailor's or apothecary's bill lurked in the envelope.

We have a paper from San Fernando, Trinidad, open for the perusal of the first man who likes to have a look at it. Also the Clapham Gazette, with a perfect cure for influenza—in horses. It appears to be genuine, and not a Horse-Marine remedy, like most perfect and patent cures.

The death of Mrs. Solomon of Haiti seems to have deeply affected some people. We were asked yesterday if the good woman died of influenza, but really cannot say. She did not subscribe to the STANDARD, and we have not been favoured with an invitation to the funeral.

A White Ball is on the Terpsychorean "menu" of the Tigre Hotel for the 20th inst. The girls will all wear white, their mammas whatever pleases them, and the gentlemen swallow-tails or smoking coats. A queer compliment to the ladies the latter garment is in a ball-room.

The papers are full of letters explaining why some people were shot and others ought to have been in Sunday's electoral scrimmage. There would have been much better fun if sticks and umbrellas, and stones and quick-lime, and hot and cold water had been used instead of deadly fire-arms.

Montevideo Times "loquitur":—"Mr. Malcolm Graham, whose death on board the Clyde, from delirium tremens, we noted yesterday, was, we have reason to believe, the ex-manager of the San Gregorio Gold Mine at Cuñapiru, on his way home, a change in the management having been ordained by the Secretary of the Company, Mr. Akers, on his recent visit."

The idea of building on English Club House at Montevideo has wisely been abandoned; times too hard, and hard and soft cash too scarce to even dream of such a thing.

The Immigration figures for January show total arrivals of 6,881, of whom only 1,575 came direct from abroad, and the rest via Montevideo, no doubt with the praiseworthy object of dodging the quarantine.

The Prensa issued 50,000 copies on Monday, the largest issue in one day ever printed by an Argentine paper.

A most laughable (only it happens to be highly dangerous to the limbs of the public) instance of Municipal proceedings was published yesterday. In November 1890, 15 months ago, the Public Works Board of the City was ordered to report on a house in Calle Balcarce that threatened to come down by the run. On Monday last the report appeared, recommending that the inmates should cut and run at once, as the building was in a dangerous state

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "PASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool.
The "PASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.
It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.
Tuesday, Feb. 9th.
The fall in gold did not last long, for a sudden reaction seized the market this morning and put the price of the ounce at $62. At a loss to explain the sudden rally in the market, the majority believed that politics were again in a critical condition, although there was not a shadow of foundation to any such report. Seventeen thousand ounces changed hands for cash at the first ring; the price opened at $67.50, fell to 61.40, rose to 62, and closed very hard at 61.90, say 280¾ % premium. Two thousand sovereigns were sold at 19.10 to 19.20, say 281¼ % premium.
The revulsion of speculative feeling on 'Change to-day was remarkable. Yesterday the atmosphere was so intensely bearish that all looked forward to a steady and heavy fall; to-day, however, a sudden blast seemed to sweep over the market and turn the tide in favor of the bulls. Buyers on time sprang up in all quarters, but few cared to sell; eighty cents 'contango' was paid for the end of the month, and $63 to $63.20 was asked for bargains for the end of March. The reluctance to sell on time was very visible, and is necessarily a very bullish symptom.
Politics are supposed to be in a ferment again, and the excellent impression produced yesterday by the results of Sunday's elections vanished in view of the tone of a certain fraction of the local press The public believed yesterday that the results of the voting were final, but it now appears that the numerous radical party claim the triumph and are prepared to spare no efforts to enforce their political claims. In other words a period of agitation is ahead and the public mind must still undergo the nervous strain that has taxed the heads and wits of all for the last 18 months.
The exchange market looked faint all morning. In view of the utter stagnation in exports bills ruled scarce and operations were reported on Paris direct at 5.07 francs and on Antwerp at 5.09 frs. Advices from Europe continue very unfavourable and there are few prospects of any great activity in produce unless the gold premium rises to 300 % or above: consignees and farmers are waiting for the rise in gold to let go, meantime, they continue storing their produce here and outside. New "barracas" will soon have to be started to meet this hobby of producers: far better for them to sell their wool and buy gold with the paper proceeds.
The money market continues very tight, but there are prospects of relief, since Mr. William Paats has appealed to his colleagues on the Board of the Banco de la Nacion Argentina to reopen discounts. The Board has resolved to begin discounting at the next sitting; this will be welcome news to a very numerous crowd who have been waiting like patience on a monument for the arrival of the brand-new notes from the London engravers Bradbury and Wilkinson. We suppose that the Bank has now a supply that will last perhaps till the month of May, when a fresh appeal may be made to Congress to grant further issues of paper in order to relieve the chronic pressure in this unfortunate money market.
Patriotic Bonds opened very weak this morning but closed firm; a very small amount changed hands. Shares of the Bolsa Building Company were sold at 120. Spanish Bank shares were quoted at 81, Credito Real at 23, and Catalinas dull and weak at 6.80. La Plata Cedulas looked dismal at 26.70 for Series M, N, and O, and 27.30 for P.

Two popular money brokers are candidates for the management of the Tandil and San Luis branches of the Banco de la Nacion Argentina. Both gentlemen are entitled to a well-deserved promotion to the enviable post of bank managers.
The following is the report of the Board of Management of the Banco de

Sir John Pender, chairman of the cable companies working in the Atlantic between this country, Uruguay, Brazil and Europe, has applied to the Argentine Government for permission to construct a telegraph line to connect Buenos Ayres with Chile. The Argentine Minister in London has written to the Minister of Foreign Affairs that the companies in London have egged for his good offices in this appeal.

4,228 immigrants and 1,755 passengers arrived last month from foreign ports at this port. Among the number were 234 Israelites.

Exchange continued a shade weaker during the afternoon; at four o'clock francs were quoted at 5.06½ on Paris direct. Very few bills in the market, and business nil.

The Galileo will get entry on the 11th and will come in at once into the Darsena and sail again on the 16th for Southampton and Antwerp.

The Bellucia will arrive from up river on the 11th and will sail on the 15th for Dunkirk.

The markets were at a stand-still this morning. Arrivals were small.

The gold market continued firm at the second ring. Seven thousand ounces were sold for to-morrow: the price opened at 62.10$, fell to 61.60, and closed at 61.80, say 279½ % premium. A few sovereigns were sold at 19.20$ to 19.15, say 280% premium. La Plata Cedulas were dull and weak at the morning rates.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring:—

We take the following from the Montevideo Times:—

"The meeting of creditors of the Obras Co., held on Friday afternoon in the National Hotel, was rather a lively affair. There were present some 500 persons, representing shares, obligations or other claims against the Company. That characteristic River Plate creature the "gato" (dummy) was strongly represented. Dr. Sarachaga, Judge of Commerce of the 1st Turn, presided. After some two hours had been spent in taking note of the claims and issuing voting tickets, Dr. Muñoz and Dr. J. F. Ramirez, President and Solicitor of the National Bank, made speeches, inaudible for the noise prevailing. The voting then took place in a scene of uproar and confusion. Several 'lists' were in circulation, and that which obtained a large majority of votes contained the names of Messrs. E. Gianelli, G. Colladon and H. H. Leng. For some unexplained reason, however, the Judge declared the Italian Bank to be appointed as provisional syndicate for the liquidation. The result has not given satisfaction, and the conduct of the meeting has been freely criticised. It is a remarkable fact that nearly every meeting held of late in connection with this Company has been remarkable for its disorderly scenes and transparent irregular practices."

We read in a London collegue:—One of the shareholders in the Bank of the River Plate, being of opinion that if the concern goes into liquidation the shareholders will lose everything, writes suggesting a reconstruction scheme. He advocates the formation of a new bank, with a capital of £3,000,000 in bonds or preference shares (that being about the amount of the liabilities) and 75,000 ordinary shares of £25—in all, £4,875,000. The suggestion is well worthy of consideration, especially as action of some kind is absolutely necessary, and no other plan has been put forward.

I consider that no estancia which has any stock worth giving medicines to ought to be without these medicines.
The GASEOUS FLUID is the very best colic medicine I have ever seen given to horses, and the RED DRENCH for any illness after foaling or calving or lambing is, I consider splendid.

Excepcional Remate de
2,000 Esplendidas Vacas Durham, mestizas
con novillada y con 30 toros padres puros, procedentes del renombrado establecimiento "Miraflores," propiedad del Señor Don Exequiel Ramos Mejias. El remate tendra lugar en las inmediaciones de la estacion Julio Arditi (F. C. de la Magdalena.)
El Domingo 21 de Febrero
a la 1 de la tarde
Las vacas que ofrecemos en venta son especialisimas y pocas veces se presentan ocasiones como estas de hacerse de inmejorables planteles.
Estas haciendas proceden de un rodeo de vacas mestizas que formó a eleccion el Sr. Ramos Mejia y cuyos novillos se han vendido siempre a precios muy elevados, habiendose obtenido hasta 100 pesos cada uno.
Hace muchos años que estas vacas se han reproducido con toros puros de inmejorable sangre y anualmente se han hecho depuraciones y limpiezas, dejando solo lo muy bueno y sacando lo inferior para consumo o para venta.
Los 30 toros son puros por cruzamiento, pues tienen 50 años de mestizacion, siempre con inmejorables reproductores de las buenas cabañas de Inglaterra.
La venta será en lotes para planteles al gusto de los interesados.
Un tren expreso saldra de la Estacion Central a las 10.25 a.m. regresando una vez concluido el remate. Mas datos a nuestra casa Alsina 480 y 482.
